Distinguished Communications

Distinguished Communications empowers individuals, teams and organizations through meaningful, strategic communication. How can you step up your game; in person, on camera or on paper? Let's talk about it!

Presentation Boot Camp

In this is intensive, two-day seminar, students gain the tools to dramatically improve presentation skills immediately. There are several opportunities to practice speeches in front of the group and a private coaching session included.

Up to twelve members of the same team may participate at once. Individuals can register for dates in most major cities. An abbreviated program is available on line which includes five, live, 90-minute sessions and one personal coaching.

Media & Crisis Training

Anyone with a cellphone is a reporter today. Are you ready for every tweet or video posted about your company in a crisis? What happens when the media questions come flooding in? We will work with you to prepare for and rehearse various scenarios to ensure that your organization is shown in the best light with the media. And if your crisis communications plan is out of date, let us assist you in getting it and your staff ready to act. Don’t wait for a crisis. Prepare.

Writing

Oral communication skills don’t always translate to paper. Let us help your team become effective writers as well as impactful oral presenters. Private and group workshops are available.

Interviewing

When two people or two companies seem equal on paper, the interview is often what gets the job. If you want to put forth your best performance to win the business, we'll help get you and your materials ready. Whether it's for a multi-million dollar project or a new position interview, you'll be at your very best after allowing us to prepare you and/or your team.

Group Facilitation

Consensus can be difficult to build and navigating a complex group dynamic can be tricky. Our independent, third-party professional facilitators will lead your group through a productive discussion to reach amiable outcomes.

Corporate Events

Our keynote speeches and corporate event sessions focus on presentation skills, interoffice communication, female assertiveness and other topical subjects. One-hour, ½-day and full-day sessions are available for groups of all sizes.

And if your awards ceremony or annual dinner calls for a professional, lively and energetic emcee, give us a call. We'll ensure that the event is a memorable one – whether in person or online.

Getting Started

Everyone's needs are different. That's why we don't have a one-size-fits-all approach. The first step is to have a chat about how you would like to see yourself or your team improve communication. Then we will propose strategic options. Why not just give us a call?
